

Sculpture of the maypole

way to Mine Host of nAre Mount.”

-Thomas Morton, 1637

2 “A few species of reported wildlife further embellish the map, no doubt to avoid too much blank space.”

-Commentary on “ILLUSTRATED MAP of NEW ENGLAND and NEW YORK”. 1635 from nps of Early nssachusetts, 1984.

ibst Point, Ducester;bach stones
from Marlehead;bach stone from

3 “Important as organisms like smallpox, the horse, and the pig were in their direct impact on American ecosystems, their full effect becomes visible only when they are treated as integral elements in a complex system of environmental and cultural relationships. The pig was not merely a pig but a creature bound among other things to the fence, the dandelion, and a very special definition of property.”

-William Cronon, 1983

4 “Yjgp"Kpfkcpu"jgctg"vjg"jqttkf"Łmvju.
of Irish, English Ogp.
Vjg"jqttkf"Qcvju"cpf"Owtvjgtu"ncvg.

cial-reforming cultural development, began a period of King Phnom most violent and acute sharpening of the Phnom capitalistic contradictions – a storm and stress, a crashing and colliding, a wavering and quaking